

18/116 Holdsworth Road North Bendigo VIC

3  1  1

Talk a walk through this 3-bedroom property with me. The main bedroom is to the right with a built-in robe and two-way bathroom featuring a bath, vanity and shower and a separate toilet. Along the hall you will find the second and third bedrooms which also feature built in robes. The laundry is a good size with ample cupboard space and an external door to the back yard.

The conveniently sized kitchen features gas and electric facilities and dishwasher for added appeal. There is a lovely open plan meals and family area for those that require extra space with the added convenience of a split system for heating and cooling.

Externally there is a single carport with roller door and small enclosed back yard. An inspection won't disappoint!

Price : $410.00 per week
