

18/116 Holdsworth Road North Bendigo VIC

3 1 1

This executive three bedroom brick veneer townhouse is set in a near new residential development! Upon entering this property the main bedroom is to the right with a built in robe and two way bathroom featuring a bath, vanity and shower and a separate toilet. Along the hall you will find the second and third bedrooms which also feature built in robes. The laundry is a good size with ample cupboard space and an external door to the back yard. The conveniently sized kitchen features gas and electric facilities and dishwasher for added appeal. There is a lovely open plan meals and family area for those that require extra space with the added convenience of a split system for heating and cooling. Externally there is a single carport with roller door and small fully enclosed back yard. An inspection wont disappoint!
