Buyers seeking an inner-city home with the option to renovate have hit the jackpot. This property has location, location, charm and potential. Oh, and thanks to its big block, awesome possibilities.

The home is a freestanding Victorian in beautiful tree-lined Hargreaves Street. Walk to city shops and restaurants; browse the mall, catch a movie. Work in the city? Sell the car and pocket the savings.

Sweet from the street, the home has a classic bull nose veranda adorned with iron lace, and traditional sash windows with full-length glass sidelights. Once inside, we discovered a fabulously wide hall with square arch, original fireplaces and stunning, elaborate, pressed-metal ceilings. Living includes lounge, three large bedrooms, a second sitting or dining room, kitchen area, bathroom, separate internal laundry and toilet.

The home is mostly original and, like ladies of a certain
