

73 Miller Street QUARRY HILL VIC

3 1 1

A beautiful unique property built in the 1950's, Architecturally designed by the renowned Mockridge Stahl Mitchell. The original features of the art deco style have been retained but with plenty of modern touches. Solid as a rock, with triple brick external walls and double brick internal walls, as you can imagine, is extremely well insulated from weather conditions as well as sound and won't be going anywhere anytime soon. It comprises three large bedrooms, the main with wall to wall BIR plus a built in cupboard and shelf along another , a 2nd bedroom with BIR's also. The 3rd bedroom is tucked away nicely at the rear of the house, providing a great space for a teenagers retreat. This room also has a toilet and vanity. The kitchen has been tastefully renovated with no cost spared, beautiful colour scheme with glass splashbacks and glossy cupboards doors, electric glass front stove with gas stove top and dishwasher. The dining room is perfectly positioned

View : <https://www.dck.com.au/sale/vic/greater-bendigo-region/quarry-hill/residential/house/5763691>