Who would have thought you could attain a property like this that has everything you could have dreamed of at such an achievable price.

Well here it is.... This property was rightly named Yangoora meaning Stringybark, surrounded by such trees creating the upmost in tranquil environments whilst only being 10mins from the centre of Bendigo. A classic Western Red Cedar set on 7 acres of established lush gardens and trees, the home is unique in design with the verandah surrounding the perimeter, inside is a spacious open plan lounge-room/kitchen and dining perfect for those who love to entertain. There are three bedrooms, the main with a huge WIR, the other two have built in robes and have their own separate family/rumpus room, great for kids or guests. There is wood fired heating plus Split System reverse cycle heating and cooling.
