

12 Lowndes Street Kennington VIC

5 3 4

This well-presented Large home is much more than the modest brick veneer it appears from the outside, it has been cleverly extended and renovated to provide a multi-roomed home with a multitude of possible uses. Inside there are five bedrooms (four with robes) plus a study, three bathrooms and two large living areas. Add to this a family-sized kitchen with all mod cons, and a dining area to match. With ducted heating/cooling and storage at a premium throughout, there's ample room for a large family where everyone can have a room to call their own. Externally it offers a covered outdoor living area, a double carport and double garage set in easy-care gardens. Homes of this size and caliber are hard to find. Inspection will impress!!
