A brilliant Kennington find you can't fault the outstanding location, tucked away in a private and peaceful pocket. Such a beautiful transformation has taken place throughout this home with all the hard work taken care of both inside and out. Fresh and radiant offering a very private and secure entryway, the home has a lovely flow and the interior design has been tastefully selected. The fully equipped kitchen has been beautifully remodelled showcasing loads of drawers, large oven and island bench which doubles as a breakfast bar, all of which is seamlessly blended with the relaxed meals area for a very inclusive open plan family space. Step down to the spacious lounge adjacent, and for those after additional space, conveniently the nearby alfresco deck and sunny terrace offers sheltered, all-weather living with handy mains gas BBQ and plenty of space to entertain or relax and soak up the Aussie outdoors year-round. 3 good sized bedrooms, including
