Move-in, recline and relax - there's nothing to be done here. The current owners have meticulously refreshed and renovated their home to perfection.

It sits behind a secure white picket fence with low maintenance garden beds and big front lawns for family fun and games.

The newly renovated home includes a spacious lounge with polished hardwood floors adjoining the new kitchen and ample meals area. The kitchen is equipped with stainless steel gas/electric cooking, integrated dishwasher, roll-out pantry and a handy appliance cupboard to help keep the benches uncluttered. An island bench separates the kitchen from the meals area and doubles as a breakfast bar while french doors open to a timber deck and a charming alfresco area. It's easy to envisage a long table spread for family dinners under the rambling grapevine and spreading canopy of a large tree decked with twinkling fairy
