A sanctuary of peace and seclusion, this sunlit home rests privately amidst magnificent gardens in a prestigious part of Bendigo where elegant homes line the elevated cul-de-sac. Set over two spacious levels offering family leisure plus entertaining in equal style, the beautifully appointed home incorporates both formal and informal living incorporating lounge and dining in addition to relaxed open plan living, meals and separate office. The generous kitchen is complemented by quality appliances, walk-in pantry, granite benchtops and ample cupboards accentuated by views over the flourishing rear garden and leafy treetops. The upstairs master suite is absolutely sublime offering spacious walk-in robe and luxurious ensuite, while a deluxe family bathroom services the further three bedrooms, all with their own generous robe space. The nearby 'Romeo and Juliet' balcony poses the perfect viewpoint to relax with drink in hand and appreciate the gentle breezes, park-like
