

20 Gundry Street Long Gully VIC

3 1 1

Extended and renovated to perfection over the years, this unique home successfully blends a character-rich past with today's modern living essentials. It now boasts three bedrooms, all with built-in robes and desks, two living areas and up-to-the minute kitchen and bathroom.

Spacious central lounge features a pine-lined cathedral ceiling, gas log fire set in the open fireplace with timber surround and mantelpiece complemented with a split system air conditioner.

The modern extension encompasses a gas-heated family room with walls of windows overlooking extensive paved outdoor living areas and plenty of room for dining and galley-style kitchen. Enjoy catering for family and friends with free-standing stainless steel, dual fuel range, dishwasher and pantry. This wing also incorporates the roomy modern bathroom, separate wc and laundry with ample storage options and outdoor access.
