The owners of this property really know how to transform a post-war weatherboard cottage into a fabulous funky home of the 21st century. They have given it a total makeover including all-important re stumping, trendy new cladding to the front facade, new top-of-the-range double-glazed windows to the front and sides, new paintwork inside and out, new carpets and floor tiles throughout, new bathroom, laundry and kitchen cabinetry plus ducted evap cooling throughout.

A front entry hall leads to the spacious L-shaped lounge/dining with sliding door to the rear, gas heating and air conditioning unit while the roomy kitchen features gas cooking, ample storage including pantry and a big window above the sink overlooking the neat backyard. The bathroom now boasts a walk-in shower, new tiles, vanity and wc. The main bedroom has built-in-ropes and all three include ceiling fans for a cooling on breeze on long-hot
