A haven away from the busy world. As soon as you open the front gate, you will fall in love. The veiled canopy of well-established trees is stunning and leads to the grand, architecturally designed William Beebe residence circa 1896. This unique masterpiece is filled with classic period charm, significant features of yesteryear and a seamless balance of modern functionality, all so highly sought after today. Retaining all the elegance and allure of its late Victorian origins, this historic inner city beauty is enviably positioned in prestigious View Street, only moments from restaurants, wine bars and our stunning theatres. Resonating warmth and style, this exceptional residence celebrates the grandeur of the era offering quality at every turn, including soaring decorative ceilings, lead light windows, ornate surrounded fire places and timber floorboards. An angled hallway sets the tone and impresses upon entry. Stately formal lounge and dining
