Located a heartbeat from the city centre in a neighbourhood of grand homes, this solid brick Victorian residence, circa 1902, luxuriates on a huge block approximately 1029 m² with convenient two-street access.

Retained period features include high, detailed ceilings and cornice, polished timber floors, original open fireplaces with timber over mantles and decorative hallway arch. While the pièces de résistance are the stunning tall, art deco lead light-glazed windows gracing the front rooms.

Generous accommodation encompasses five big bedrooms plus study, two modern bathrooms and two living areas. The large main suite includes a wall of robes and new ensuite, the study is off the grand side entry foyer while remaining bedrooms and second bathroom all open off the central hallway.

Spacious formal lounge featuring a wood heater set in the open fireplace lies beside the side entry vestibule with the
