

103 Queen Street Bendigo VIC

2 2

An exciting addition to the Bendigo Property market this terrace house on Queen Street is a fine example of solid Brick with federation Style Architecture, built in 1900.

The home has undergone a complete restoration and Modernisation by Mark Coffey Constructions, a company that has a proven track history restoring and rejuvenating so many of Bendigo's Gem's.

Original features include return veranda, soaring ceilings and beautiful Baltic pine flooring. Rooms boast grand proportions along with contemporary decor and exclusive fittings. Modernisation includes stone-topped kitchen, Italian-designed SMEG appliances, remote controlled awnings and air conditioning with e-Zone smart phone climate control.

On an individual title and zoned commercial one (C1Z) for residential and approved business use.
