Commanding, contemporary and cutting-edge in design, this remarkable five-bedroom home ticks every box when it comes to luxury family living. High-end finishes are evident from the striking facade of contrasting textures and tones.

Set on an approx. 695m²² block close to the hospital precinct, Lake Weeroona and the CBD, the low-maintenance, one-year-old double-storey home encompasses approximately 41 squares.

It begins with a high-ceilinged entry foyer with floating timber staircase to the upper level and polished concrete floors flowing to a light-filled open-plan family, dining and kitchen.

The kitchen is a modern marvel equipped with big butler's pantry, Miele appliances including double oven, 4m stone-topped bench with built-in bar fridge and wine rack and superior finishes at every turn.

Long, built-in wall mounted entertainment units adorn the
