

76 MacKenzie Street Bendigo VIC

4 2 1

This beautifully maintained Victorian home has been cherished by the current owner for 40 years but now it's time to move on.

It will suit those looking for an inner-city lifestyle within a short walk to the best of Bendigo's shopping, galleries, theatres, restaurants, cafes, and the railway station.

Reflecting Bendigo's wealthy society of the late 1800s, the solid brick home on the high side of Mackenzie Street is filled with charm, character, and a lasting style. It's set on a sprawling 1,088sqm block of very private established gardens capturing stunning views of the neighbouring Sacred Heart Cathedral spire.

Built circa 1880, the Victorian villa features iron lacework to its substantial return veranda with durable Ironbark flooring and etched ruby glass sidelights surrounding the entry door.

Inside, a wealth of period features includes high ceilings,
