Bendigo boasts a small number of residences featuring graceful curved exterior walls, and this red clinker brick is one quiet achiever. Set in a private garden behind a high picket fence, shaded by well-established trees, it was lovingly renovated in the early 2010s with attention to detail sensitive to the era.

When you approach, you are greeted with curved steps to the porch echoing the curved external walls. Victorian Ash polished floorboards set the mood complemented by art deco timber doors throughout the home, double hung timber windows, high ceilings, decorative ceiling roses and cornices, and stunning art deco leadlight feature windows in the master bedroom.

This home offers a flexible floorplan with 5 or 6 bedrooms, ensuite, family bathroom, powder room and the option to
