3 1 1

When location is equally as important as the property, this home offers the perfect opportunity for someone to enter the market, invest, downsize or enjoy a less demanding property.

Built in 1996 and recently refreshed, the home is set on 429m2 on a corner location with rear roller door access from the single lock up garage making it appealing to those looking for a smaller home with adequate backyard.

When you enter through the security door from the shaded verandah you appreciate the thoughtful floorplan offering separate spacious lounge with gas wall-furnace, separate kitchen and dining space opening to the private yard.

All three bedrooms are fitted with BIRs and ceiling fans with the master leading into the 2-way bathroom and separate
