

79 Lily Street Bendigo VIC

3 1 1

At a first glance this might look like a cute vintage house, but don't be deceived, as inside you will find a generous-sized family home where a recent renovation has brought it into present contemporary. Add to this the prime position in a quiet, wide, no-through street a short walk to the CBD, local eateries, St John of God Hospital, and a major supermarket, and you have the perfect match.

The freshly painted weatherboard home offers three good sized bedrooms, a spacious north facing lounge where lovely light streams through large windows, a three-piece bathroom, a study nook with external access and a large laundry. The new kitchen dining area is core to the home, where cooking for family and friends will be a pleasure with gas/electric cooking appliances, a dishwasher and ample cabinetry including a roll-out pantry. The spacious dining area has large storage cupboards and room for
