This delightful townhouse tucked away and embraced by manicured gardens with a vine-draped front verandah is a perfect place to downsize for the "rest" of your life.

There's plenty to love in the well-maintained home where a tiled front entry opens to a study/third bedroom on one side and the spacious lounge room opposite. A north-facing bay window fills the room with light and garden views while ducted heating and cooling maintain the internal climate. The light-filled kitchen includes an upgraded electric wall oven and induction cooktop, a Bosch dishwasher and new benchtops. The adjacent dining area spills through a sliding door to a full-length, paved rear verandah. It's the ideal spot for outdoor living or just soaking up the ambience of the private rear garden.

Two good-sized bedrooms include built-in robes, with the
