

5 Albion Street Kennington VIC

Behind this classic Californian bungalow facade, a thoughtful renovation and extension have produced a home where yesterday's grace, meets today's family space.

The property offers all the expectations of today's modern lifestyle while retaining its old-fashioned charm and appeal.

The characteristic front porch features planter boxes and a pair of barley twist columns. Double front doors featuring curved leadlight glazing invite you into the entry foyer with recently polished hardwood floors and high ceilings featuring decorative art-deco panels and cornice overhead.

The original section includes a front sitting room with a beautiful curved leadlight window and a working open fireplace. Across the hallway, the main bedroom has a wall of BIR's with matching leadlight.
