

3/193 Queen Street Bendigo VIC

2 1 1

Set back off a wide nature strip on a broad street, this 2-bedroom, brick veneer unit exudes a sense of space and quiet. The cathedral view is all that reveals its proximity to the city centre.

Windows spanning the front of the home, flood it with the light. The combined dining and lounging zone is the place to be on a sunny winter's day. In summer, awnings provide an effective shield for the front rooms. A reverse-cycle split system and ceiling fan ensure comfort whatever the weather.

The timber-look floor in the living area flows through to the L-shaped kitchen complementing the neutral décor. The kitchen has a spacious feel. Cupboards and drawers line the walls and, together with the pantry, provide a place for everything. The stovetop is gas and the built-in oven,
