

58 Reginald Street Quarry Hill VIC

4 2 2

An enticing opportunity to enter the coveted Quarry Hill locale awaits with this captivating weatherboard and roughcast Californian Bungalow. Having been extended to now offer a great family size home, it harmoniously blends period charm with the demands of modern family living.

Practical and spacious, the home features some gorgeous features from its era: leadlight-glazed windows, higher decorative ceilings, pendant lights, picture rails and polished timber floors.

The original section includes the double-width entry foyer leading to the formal lounge with an open fireplace, stunning plaster ceiling dome and decorative cornice.

Four generous bedrooms include the main with a walk-in dressing room/robe and an ensuite.
